

CANADIAN INVESTMENT STREAM CHECKLIST

The documents listed must be uploaded in order for the application to be considered complete. Any documents submitted following the deadline will not be included in the project analysis which is presented to the Board of Directors for the funding decision.

DOCUMENTS:	REQUIRED?
1. One-page synopsis	Yes
2. Current script(s). If a series, at least 2 episodes should be submitted	Yes
3. Series bible, if applicable	Yes, if applying for a series
4. Demo (i.e. company sizzle reel, Director reel, previous season, animation demo) (Application form has space for links to online demos – if you would prefer to submit a DVD, please mail to the Rocket Fund office)	No
5. Original materials (i.e. books, media) if the Production is based on a book or other program (not applicable for series renewal) (To be sent via mail)	Yes, if applicable
6. Associated digital content plan (i.e. website, games, etc.). If a series renewal, a current plan based on the new season is required	Yes
7. Evidence of Canadian legal identity (i.e. incorporation documents for production or parent company)	Yes
8. Evidence of 6/10 Canadian content certification points – a signed letter from producer detailing anticipated points for each key cast & crew, such letter confirming that a minimum 6/10 points will be obtained	Yes
9. Co-production agreement(s) or short form(s) that outline the terms of the agreement(s) (if applicable)	Yes, if applicable
10. Proposed financial structure	Yes
11. Letter(s) from an eligible platform or Canadian broadcaster(s) indicating the intent to make the program or series available in a meaningful way to the intended audience in Canada within two years of project completion	Yes
12. Evidence of financing secured to date	No
13. Provincial and federal tax credit calculations, based on the submitted budget	Yes, if applicable
14. Proposed recoupment schedule	Yes
15. A detailed and feasible Discoverability Plan (i.e. how you will market your Production to your audience, including and in addition to any efforts by your broadcaster/platform)	Yes
16. Distribution agreement(s) including all licences and pre-sales that may or may not be part of your financing	No
17. Canadian marketing and promotional strategy (i.e. how you will sell your Production to broadcasters, platforms and distributors)	Yes
18. If available, sales and revenue projections from a bonafide distributor	No
19. Current budget top sheet and detailed production budget, dated and signed	Yes
20. Related party transactions (i.e. what production costs are being paid to owners of the company, related parties)	Yes
21. Current company profiles for Production Company, Co-Production Company and Parent Company(ies)	Yes
22. Key creative bios/resumes (i.e. Writer, Director, etc.)	Yes

The Fund reserves the right to withhold evaluation of incomplete applications.

SHAW ROCKET FUND RESERVES THE RIGHT TO REQUIRE ADDITIONAL INFORMATION UPON REQUEST